Excellent apartment located in a quiet street of Vracar area, in newer, smaler building without an elevator. The St. Sava temple and National library are within five minute walking distance, as well as numerous shops, coffee shops, and restaurants. Well known Kalenic green market is at fifteen minute walking distance. Slavija square, and highway inclusion are both within five minute driving distance. The apartment occupies the whole last floor of the building. From the anteroom one can enter every room of the apartment. Living room is spacious with an exit to a terrace, while the kitchen is partialy separated and fully equipped. The bathroom is large with a window and a bathtub. Two bedrooms are at disposal as well. The apartment is fully equipped with new, modern furniture. It is two-side oriented, air-conditioned and bright. There is one parking spot in basement level of the building.
