New, modernly designed building, located not very far from St. Sava Temple. Designed for the purpose of a restaurant or a cafe, but with slight adaptations it can also be brought into use for an office space. From the entrance one can directly access first level, which occupies about 140 m², from where a staircase leads to the second level of about 160 m². There is a possibility of parking spaces for a few vehicles in the garage across the street from the space.
