Very good house placed in mutual yard in center of Zemun, close to post office and Main street. Excellent location which is well connected with rest of the town both with public and private transport. This house is built in the '90, and it is positioned close to public transport station. It occupies three levels. Ground floor is connected both with lower and upper level with a staircase and contains bathroom. Basement level has large kitchen, pantry, while the last level consists of two rooms, bathroom and small terrace. House is equipped with central heating system provided by the city, and it is air-conditioned. It could be rented with or without furniture, for family life or business activities.
