An excellent apartment in relatively new building in the heart of Vracar area. Quiet, one way street close to the commercial zone. The apartment is oriented towards the street with three large terraces and it represents the oasis in the center of the city. Remarcable location which is rich in diversity of stores, charming cafes and restaurants. At only five minutes walking distance there is Tasmajdan park and at ten green market Kalenic, as well as plenty od content for sports activities and recreation. The apartment is housed on the fourth floor it is bright, with characteristic high ceilings of 3 m. Living room together with dining room and kitchen make central part of the apartment. Kitchen is open towards the living room and it is equipped with cupboards and built in appliances of high quality. Two comfortable bedrooms are at opposite sides of living room and both have king size beds, built in closets and exit to a terrace of its own. Two bathrooms with shower cabins are at disposal. Direct and discreet lights, and floors in hazelnut color make this ambiance elegant. Excellent choice for those who like peace in desirable location in the center of city life.
