Shop placed within a new apartment building, located on a busy intersection of two New Belgrade boulevards. Location well connected to the city center and highway inclusion, while the neighborhood is abundant with both office and residential buildings, as well as commercial contents. Shop is two-side oriented, with it's front side facing toward the boulevard and back side toward the inner yard between buildings. It has two display windows and two entrances. Modernly designed, it is characterized by an open layout, with one toilet. Suitable for various business activities, either retail or catering. Excellent connection to the city center and Zemun.
