The space is placed on the ground floor of family house with separate entrance. The street is quiet but placed between two boulevards with large frequency of traffic which provides easy and quick access to this location. Interior is enhanced with characteristic high ceilings. It consists of anteroom, two lavatories, and six rooms. The largest one occupies 60 m<sup>2</sup> while several of them are mutually interconnected. Floors are covered with combination of parquet, laminate and tiles, while walls are designed in very interesting manner with parts in vibrant colors. Suitable for variety of business activities.
