Excellent space with characteristic high ceilings in authentic pre war house in very city center. It is housed on the high ground floor and occupies the whole floor, it is mainly oriented towards the street. The space consists of two mutually interconnected rooms and entrance area on the lower part. Few stairs up, there is other part which contains kitchen, bathroom and one more room. A terrace is overlooking the yard. The whole space is renovated, but previous elements were kept. Everything in the apartment is new or in excellent condition. Bathroom and kitchen are designed in modern manner with very attractive tiles. The space could be used both for business activities or comfortable life.
