Excellent office space, located in the very heart of the city, near Knez Mihailova Street. Close to numerous public and historical institutions, as well as commercial content. Numerous lines of public transport with stops in the immediate vicinity make it easy to communicate with all parts of the city. Space is located on the first floor of the older building. During the decorating process, first-class import materials were used (ceramics, sanitary ware, parquet, lighting, carpentry and other). The apartment consists of a spacious reception area, with a reception desk, as well as three large offices and one conference room. There is a separate kitchenette and a toilet at disposal, while the apartment exits to two terraces. The interior is fully equipped with expensive office furniture and excellent lighting. It has an alarm system and an indented computer network. Ideal for administrative work.
