A self standing house, placed on the corner of two streets. Nice location, highly attractive both for live or work in it. The house is situated in the middle of the large plot. The location is at walking distance from stations of public transport, and at only fifteen minutes driving distance from city center. The house has excellent layout both for comfortable life or business activity. The house occupies four levels. High ground floor is mainly an open space of 85 m² which contains living room and dining room. Also there are fully equipped kitchen, bathroom and one bedroom. Lower level consists of another living room, kitchen, one large room, one small room, bathroom, laundry room, and utility room with heating system. First floor has four bedrooms one of which is with bathroom of its own. Loft is an open space which occupies 40 m². The house is abundant with light, with functional layout and on excellent position. Suitable for larger family, but with several interior corrections it could be very attractive business premise.
