A shop situated within a shopping center, positioned on a very busy location, at the corner of two streets. In front of the shopping center there is parking space, as well as public transportation stop. Residential urban area, but with high frequency of pedestrians and vehicles. At the -1 and -2 level of the complex there is a garage with security. The shop is located at the entrance to the building and has a shopping window, facing toward central hall. It has open layout and an entrance from the shopping center itself. There is a smaller utility room at disposal, as well as a toilet. Suitable for different business activities.
