A shop situated within a shopping center, positioned on a very busy location, at the corner of two streets. In front of the shopping center there is parking space, as well as public transportation stop. Residential urban area, but with high frequency of pedestrians and vehicles. At the -1 and -2 level of the complex there is a garage with security. The shop is located in the basement level and has a shopping window, facing toward central hall. There is a common toilet, separated for men and women, with several cabins. Suitable for different business activities.
