Excellent apartment housed on the second floor of a newer building, which has an energy passport. It is located on Vracar, near the Temple of St. Sava. A quiet part of the city with plenty of new buildings and good facilities in the immediate vicinity - numerous shops, restaurants, cafes, as well as Kalenic green market. Within only five minute driving distance one can reach the highway inclusion, while busy streets with public transportation are within walking distance. An attractive, modern concept includes an open living and kitchen-dining area, with access to the French balcony, which overlooks the street. The kitchen is fully equipped and has a kitchen counter. Two bedrooms are at disposal in the sleeping block, one of which has a double bed, while the other is equipped with a couch. Bathroom has a shower cabin. There is a garage in the building available with the apartment. The apartment is equipped with new attractive furnishings of joyful colors. Suitable for a couple or smaller family.
