A business space is placed in the self standing house. It is situated in a small street, but with large frequency of traffic, in the wider city center. The business surroundings with large boulevard in the close vicinity provide easy connection with all important parts of the city. Public transport cover this location with several lines. This prewar facility is completely renovated and high quality built. The hallway connect all six offices, while three terraces are at disposal as well. Two of which are overlooking the street, and third is turned towards the yard. The space is equipped with air-condition, highly economical heating pumps, led lighting, and computer network. Two parking spaces are reserved for future tenants. Suitable for variety of business activities.
