Excellent apartment, positioned in a quiet street on an attractive location in the heart of Vracar. Several busy streets allow fast connection to other parts of the city, while public transport stations are located in near vicinity. Various commercial contents are available nearby. The apartment is housed on the second floor of a well maintained building with two elevators. Small entrance area leads to the living room connected to dining area and a kitchen. From there another hallway leads to the sleeping block with two bedrooms and a bathroom. Bathroom is fully renovated, has a shower cabin, as well as space for washing and drying machine. Completely renovated apartment, with new carpentry, ceramics and lighting. Modern interior with dominant pastel colors. Lighting in combination with other decorative details contribute to the comfort of the interior. Suitable for residential as well as business purposes.
