A well-positioned building in one of the busy streets of Vračar. Within only 10 minute walking distance from Kalenic green market, one of the most famous city points. In addition, the whole zone is very rich in various contents. The apartment is housed in a newer building, extremely bright. It is spacious, functionally organized and suitable for family life. The public part of the apartment consists of comfortable living room with access to the terrace, followed by a fully equipped kitchen. Sleeping block has two bedrooms, both with access to the terrace. Bathroom is very spacious and has a large bathtub, while the guest toilet is turned into a pantry. Suitable for both residential and office space.
