Prewar apartment, located in a busy street in city center. Building doesn't have direct access from the street, so the position is quiet despite of the location itself. The apartment is housed on the ground floor and it is facing the yard. It consists of four rooms, two of which are interconnecting. There is a bathroom and a restroom at disposal. Smaller kitchen is equipped but hasn't been renovated. Parts of the apartment are new, such as laminate and recently renovated restroom, while carpentry requires renovations. The apartment is without furniture and it is most suitable for office space.
