An apartment placed in a house in quiet Dedinje street. Location is attractive, close to American embassy and square with frequent traffic. It is at only five minutes walking distance from a super market which is always open. In front of the house is nicely maintained parking, while apartment is hidden from the noise thanks to the yard in front of it. Tiled path through the lawn in front of the house leads to nice entrance which is placed 10 m withdrawn from the street. Ground floor consists of entrance hallway, large living room connected with kitchen and toilet. Living room is turned towards the yard and its whole wall is glass surface. On the upper level are hallway, three rooms, walk-in closet and large bathroom. Attic is also available as storage room. This level has slanted ceilings but it doesn't disturb the functionality of space. The apartment is for rent without furniture, but it could be furnished as well. The materials and lights used in this space are high quality. Modern, comfortable interior is suitable for modern family or business activity as well. Garage and basement are at disposal as well.
