Good apartment with characteristic high ceilings at excellent location, close to St Sava temple. It is housed on the first floor of pre war building with four entrances and occupies the whole floor. Central room leads to two spacious, mutually connected rooms, renovated bathroom with shower cabin and small, fully equipped kitchen. Two hallways also could be accessed from this central area. Each hallway leads to one room. One small room is placed in one of the hallways which could be redesigned in to a bathroom. The apartment is for rent without furniture. Suitable for business activities which require large, mutually connected offices. In the building near by one garage space is at disposal.
