Very good business premise close to Tosin bunar street and highway. The space is completely renovated, nicely designed with taste and using quality materials. It consists of two offices, kitchen with dining table and bathroom. The space has two entrances directly from the street and a small terrace. The windows are secured with white wrought iron gratings. In front of the space there is possibility to park at least four vehicles without additional price because this area is free parking zone. The space is equipped with air-condition unit and central heating. Suitable for hair or cosmetic saloon, small dentist office, or quiet office business activities.
