Very good office premise placed in newer business building in Dedinje area close to Dragisa Misovic hospital and in a street with high frequency of traffic. The building has parking space, two entrances - one main entrance and another in the back. The premise is organized as open space without dividing walls. Two toilets are at disposal as well. One side of the premise is covered with window surfaces overlooking the greenery. Space could be adapted to variety of business needs. There is independent system of heating and cooling in the building. Suitable for variety of business activities. Nice cafe shop with a beautiful terrace is at disposal as well.
