Attractive apartment located in wider city center, in vicinity of Kneza Milosa and Nemanjina streets. Vicinity of highway inclusion, as well as variety of public transport allows fast connection to the rest of the city. Prewar, walk up building with high ceilings. The apartment has been fully renovated and has a modern open layout concept. From the entrance hallway one can directly access a spacious living room area, which further leads into the rest of the rooms. It has an exit to a terrace. There are three more rooms at disposal, with French balconies facing the street. The apartment has a modern kitchen with MDF panels and interesting details, a bathroom with a shower cabin and a restroom. Brand new installations and carpentry and fan coil heating system. White color is dominating throughout the interior and in combination with high ceilings and plenty of daylight it creates a pleasant atmosphere. Property suitable for clients with remarkable taste, available both for residential and business purposes.
