Very nice and comfortable apartment, in the heart of Dedinje. Elite, residential area, ideal for families with school-aged children, due to the proximity of a large number of international schools. Neighborhood is safe and represents the main location for the life of foreigners, due to numerous embassies in the area. The apartment is situated within a complex that is under video surveillance. The interior layout is excellently organized, according to the standards of modern housing. The open living room with dining room continues to the kitchen, and opens onto a large terrace. Next to it is the toilet and entrance hall. All this space forms the lower level of the apartment, for daily activities. It is equipped with comfortable furniture and plenty of details. The upper part of the apartment is private area with a master bedroom and its own wardrobe and bathroom, two more bedrooms, another bathroom and a utility room/laundry room. The master bedroom is furnished, while the other two bedrooms can be furnished according to the tenants' needs. Two parking spaces in the garage, which are placed in the basement of the building, are an additional convenience. The overall impression, a great property that provides excellent living comfort.
