Exceptional, attractive apartment, located in a modern building near the Temple of St. Sava. The location is well connected with all parts of the city, and in the micro-environment there are many restaurants, cafes and shops. The apartment occupies the entire second floor, has two entrances, and is characterized by a comfortable, modern interior and functionality of the rooms. The living room is interconnected with a dining room and kitchen and has access to the terrace which faces the greenery and the Temple of St. Sava. A guest toilet is at disposal as well. The kitchen is placed next to the terrace, fully equipped, and there is a second entrance to the apartment. From this area is very practical to enter the private area. The master bedroom is placed next to the living room, and has its own bathroom. In the second sleeping block there are two beautiful bedrooms, both equipped with a double bed and a closet. They share one comfortable bathroom with shower. The apartment is suitable for couples, business people, foreigners. The pleasant ambience provides a comfortable life in one of the most attractive city locations. The building has a car lift and a garage in the basement where two parking spaces are at disposal on the ramp suitable for a larger car.
