A good house, suitable for office space situated in a quiet part of town, in a small street between two busy boulevards through which public transport lines pass. The house is alone on the plot, which is well used. The main entrance is from the street and the other entrance from the yard for vehicles. There is space for six parking spaces in the yard. The house has a beautiful white facade and spreads over four levels. In the basement there is a garage, suitable for one larger or two smaller vehicles, one larger and one smaller room, pantry and toilet. The high ground floor consists of four offices of different sizes, a bathroom, a kitchen and a terrace. Four offices and two bathrooms are on the first floor. Second floor contains three medium and one small office and terrace. Functional layout, plenty of light, quiet and easily accessible location are the qualities that make this property ideal for various business activities.
