This very interesting apartment is located in the attic of a pre-war residential building in the heart of the Old Town, on Toplicin venac. An original, old wooden elevator leads to the floor below the apartment. The apartment is structurally divided into three and a half rooms. Unusual interior, with plenty of wood, brick and original designer details. Master bedroom has it's own bathroom and wardrobe. The second bedroom has an added gallery suitable for various purposes. The gallery has access to a beautiful, spacious terrace with a beautiful view, and can be used as an additional bedroom or study room. There is another bathroom, pantry, kitchen and living room under slanted ceiling with roof windows. A non-standard property decorated with a lot of taste suitable for people who want to be in the center of city events.
