The apartment is situated in excellent location in quiet street near St Sava temple. It is housed on the third floor of a prewar building, without an elevator. The space is organized as modern open space and spreads over two levels. The first floor consists of living room which is interconnected with a dining room and kitchen which is partially separated by kitchen counter. This area has an access to a large terrace overlooking the St Sava temple. Guest toilet and master bedroom with ensuite bathroom are at this level as well. Upper level contains two bedrooms, one room with small sitting set and large bathroom with a bathtub. The apartment is well preserved with modern ceramic, nice parquet, pvc windows, and small ceiling slopes on the upper level. It is furnished in modern manner with taste. Suitable for a family life.
