An interesting, functional studio apartment housed in a maintained, pre-war building in the heart of Vracar. Ideal location for a comfortable life and work with plenty interesting facilities in the area. The apartment is located about ten minutes walking distance from the city center. The space is bright, oriented towards the building's yard. The apartment consists of one room with kitchen and a bar, and a bathroom with a shower. The space is for rent without furniture, but it can be equipped if necessary. In front of the building is a beautifully landscaped courtyard that is at disposal as well. Suitable for residential or business purposes.
