Excellent house, fully renovated and adapted into luxurious commercial premises. Located in wider city center, in a quiet street within five minute walking distance from Takovska street and Botanical garden, close to Novi Dorcol residential complex. Relatively new building of specific exterior and interior design. It features three levels, each has an open space layout. Two restrooms are at disposal, as well as cameras and security system. Electricity heating, with remote control boiler and floor heating. Two air-conditioners and video intercom. Plot around the house is small, but well maintained and private. Layout as well as the interior itself are very modern and attractive, suitable for variety of business activities.
