An excellent apartment in a good location near the Palilula green market and Tašmajdan Park. It is located in a brand new building and everything in the apartment is new. Entrance into the building is through a backyard and each side is completely isolated from traffic noise. Modern and attractive building with garage space in the basement. It consists of an open living room connected with a dining room, which is followed by the kitchen area. The living room, as well as one bedroom, have access to a terrace facing the beautiful backyard. One bedroom has a double bed, while the other is intended for a child, a guest room or a work room and has a single bed and a closet. The apartment has two bathrooms, both with showers. The furniture is new, modern, minimalist, in pastel colors. It can be rented out with a garage space for an additional fee. Excellent space intended for modern tenants who want to stay in the city center but also want a quiet and secluded home.
