Completely renovated apartment in an older building, in a quiet part of the street, close to Vracar plateau. The immediate vicinity of the Temple of St. Sava and Karađorđe Park. The location offers plenty of possibilities for a comfortable life. Easy access to several markets and cafeterias, as well as the well known Kalenić green market, which is within only 5-minute walking distance. There is also a post office, several banks, and a public transport stop in the immediate vicinity. The apartment is located on the second floor of the building. It is comfortable and bright, with high-quality equipment, a combination of warm tones and modern interior. It has two bedrooms and one bathroom. Living room occupies a central part of the apartment and is a spacious area that includes the living and dining area with the kitchen. Modern-looking kitchen with built-in elements, attractive lighting. A pleasant environment provides a comfortable life in one of the most attractive city locations.
